

SAAKALYA TRAVEL INVITES YOU TO EXPLORE THE HOLISTIC SIDE TO SOUTHEAST ASIA

For immediate release

9th December 2014, Singapore: travel.saakalya.com touches down with its boutique travel service, offering truly holistic weekend breaks to the hidden gems of Southeast Asia.

In the ancient Indian language of Sanskrit, the word for entireness and completeness is Saakalya.

Visitors to world renowned wellness destinations such as Bali and Thailand often describe a deep sense of peace and natural energy permeating these beautiful environments. Whilst these regions have become famous for offering complete mental, physical and even spiritual wellbeing, Saakalya Travel takes this one step further.

Saakalya Travel rewards guest's curiosity by immersing them in local culture, hidden secrets and natural wonders. Travellers are given access to a side of these countries that is typically seen only by local eyes creating an enriching and wholesome experience. By connecting with the local communities and businesses that maintain a holistic lifestyle, guests are enveloped in a captivating and enviable way of life that imbues the fortunate with a sense of oneness.

Saakalya Travel creates these unique and memorable experiences by providing a peaceful and relaxing stay right from the airport arrivals gate. Every detail is handled in such a way as to leave no one wanting. Food, drink, transport and each enticing activity are included in the price, freeing guests to leave their cares at home. Saakalya Travel guides small groups through a diverse product range – an adventurous weekend out amid untamed nature, a playful yet meaningful arts workshop, exploring the mysticism of the local culture or indulging in culinary delights.

Alongside service, sustainability is of great importance to Saakalya Travel and the company supports and highlights the culture and traditions of the countries we visit. Local accommodation is chosen where personal attention and a warm welcome is of utmost value. Traditional local cuisine takes the forefront on the quest to discover the hidden gems of Southeast Asia. The natural ingredients and cooking methods imbue not only wonderful flavours but also a deep vitality. In addition Saakalya Travel relies on its local travel guides who have an intimate knowledge of their country. They understand the key values of their communities and help us to improve our relationship with both them and the natural environment.

Saakalya Travel has worked closely with its partners, Cabaleiro Atelier & Art School, Nakd Water, Puri Ganesha Villas Bali and Szigeti, pouring a collective passion into this wonderful range of enlightening travel experiences.

For further information, please contact:

Alexandra Schmutterer

Managing Director

alexandra.schmutterer@saakalya.com

SG (T) +65 6698 6637

DE (T) +49 89 21 555 281

travel.saakalya.com

Tom Deakin

PR

tom.deakin@saakalya.com

SG (T) +65 8421 4270

travel.saakalya.com